Effective: October 23, 1991 Latest Legislation: House Bill 221 - 119th General Assembly

(A) If a challenge following the procedure under section 2712.25 of the Revised Code is not successful, the challenging party may request the court of common pleas, within thirty days after having received notice of the decision rejecting the challenge, to decide on it. If a challenge is based upon the grounds set forth in section 2712.22 of the Revised Code, and the court of common pleas determines that the facts support a finding that any of those grounds fairly exist, then the challenge shall be sustained.

(B) The decision of the court of common pleas under this section is final and is not subject to appeal.

(C) While a request under this section is pending, the arbitral tribunal, including the challenged arbitrator, may continue with the arbitral proceedings and make an arbitral award.

The withdrawal or agreement shall not imply acceptance of the validity of any ground referred to in section 2712.22 of the Revised Code.

(B) If a controversy remains concerning any of the grounds referred to in this section, a party may request the court of common pleas to decide on the termination of the mandate. A decision of the court of common pleas under this division is not appealable.

(C) The mandate of an arbitrator also terminates upon his withdrawal from office for any reason, or by or pursuant to agreement of the parties.

Section 2712.30 | Replacing arbitrator.

Effective: October 23, 1991 Latest Legislation: House Bill 221 - 119th General Assembly

(2) Any hearings previously held may be repeated at the discretion of the arbitral tribunal, if an arbitrator other than the sole or presiding arbitrator is replaced.

Section 2712.31 | Jurisdiction rulings.

Effective: October 23, 1991 Latest Legislation: House Bill 221 - 119th General Assembly

The arbitral tribunal may rule on its own jurisdiction, including ruling on any objections with respect to the existence or validity of the arbitration agreement. For that purpose, an arbitration clause that forms part of a contract shall be treated as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract. A decision by the arbitral tribunal that the contract is void shall not invalidate the arbitration clause.

Section 2712.32 | Plea of lack of jurisdiction.

Effective: October 23, 1991 Latest Legislation: House Bill 221 - 119th General Assembly

A plea that the arbitral tribunal lacks jurisdiction shall be raised not later than the date of the submission of the statement of defense. A party is not precluded from raising that plea by the fact that he has appointed, or participated in the appointment of, an arbitrator.

Effective: October 23, 1991 Latest Legislation: House Bill 221 - 119th General Assembly

(A) If the arbitral tribunal rules as a preliminary question that it has jurisdiction, any party, within thirty days after having received notice of that ruling, shall request the court of common pleas to decide the matter or shall be deemed to have waived objection to that ruling. The decision of the court of common pleas under this section is final and is not appealable.

(B) While a request under division (A) of this section is pending, the arbitral tribunal may continue with the arbitral proceedings and make an arbitral award.

Section 2712.36 | Requests for interim measure of protection order.

Effective: October 23, 1991 Latest Legislation: House Bill 221 - 119th General Assembly

(A) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the arbitral tribunal, at the request of a party, may order a party to take any measure of protection that the arbitral tribunal considers necessary in respect of the subject matter of the dispute. The arbitral tribunal may require a party to provide appropriate security in connection with a measure of protection ordered under this division.

(B) A party may request an interim measure of protection directly from any court with jurisdiction. However, no measure of protection shall be granted by a court of this state unless the party shows that an application to the arbitral tribunal for the measure of protection would prejudice the party's rights and that an interim measure of protection from the court is necessary to protect those rights. The arbitral tribunal shall be deemed to be a party in interest in any action under this division. Any court of this state that issues an order for an interim measure of protection as provided in this division, upon application of the tribunal, shall modify or terminate its order as appropriate.

Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the parties may agree on the procedure to be followed by the arbitral tribunal in conducting the proceedings.

Effective: October 23, 1991 Latest Legislation: House Bill 221 - 119th General Assembly

The parties may agree upon the language or languages to be used in the arbitral proceedings. Unless otherwise specified, the agreement or determination referred to in this section shall apply to any written statement by a party, any hearing, and any arbitral award, decision, or other communication by the tribunal. The tribunal may order that any documentary evidence be accompanied by a translation into the language or languages chosen pursuant to this section.

(B) The parties may submit with their statements all documents they consider to be relevant or may add a reference to the documents or other evidence they plan to submit.

(C) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties and unless the claimant shows sufficient cause for not doing so, if the claimant fails to communicate his statement of claim in accordance with this section, the arbitral tribunal shall terminate the proceedings.

(D) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties and unless the respondent shows sufficient cause for not doing so, if the respondent fails to communicate his statement of defense in accordance with this section, the arbitral tribunal shall continue the proceedings without treating that failure in itself as an admission of the claimant's allegations.

Effective: October 23, 1991 Latest Legislation: House Bill 221 - 119th General Assembly

Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, either party may amend or supplement his statement of claim or defense during the course of the arbitral proceedings, unless the arbitral tribunal considers it inappropriate to allow the amendment or supplement having regard to the delay in making it.

declare that the award is not entitled to confirmation by the courts of this state. The court shall dispose of all such applications as provided in division (B) of this section without regard to the law of the place of arbitration, the law governing the award, or whether a court would apply the law or decisional principles applied by the arbitral tribunal or would grant the relief granted in the award.

(B)(1) The court of common pleas shall grant an application to confirm the award without regard to the place of arbitration unless one of the grounds set forth in section 2712.70 of the Revised Code is established as an affirmative defense. If such an affirmative defense is established and the conditions of division (B)(2) of this section are met, the court shall vacate the award without regard to any time limit contained in this section. If such an affirmative defense is established and the conditions of division (B)(2) of this section are not met, the court shall issue an order declaring the award is not entitled to confirmation by the courts of this state.

(2) The court of common pleas shall grant an application to vacate the award if the applicant establishes one of the grounds set forth in section 2712.70 of the Revised Code and either the place of arbitration was in this state or the arbitration was subject to the laws of this state.

(3) The court of common pleas shall declare that the award is not entitled to confirmation by the courts of this state if the applicant establishes one or more of the grounds set forth in section 2712.70 of the Revised Code, but the place of arbitration was not in this state or the arbitration was not subject to the laws of this state.

(C) In any action under divisions (A) and (B) of this section, the judgment of a court of a foreign nation determining whether one or more of the grounds established in section 2712.70 of the Revised Code is established shall be accorded the effect normally given the judgment of a court of a foreign nation by the courts of this state.

(D) The applications referred to in divisions (A) and (B) of this section shall be brought within the following time limits:

(1) An application to confirm an award shall be brought within the time provided for in the Revised Code for the enforcement of judgments.

(2) An application to vacate an award or for a declaration that the award is not entitled to confirmation by the courts of this state shall be brought within ninety days of receipt of the final award by the applicant or, in the case of an application based on division (A)(4) or (5) of section 2712.70 of the Revised Code, within ninety days of the date when the circumstances giving rise to the application were discovered or, with the exercise of due diligence, should have been discovered by the applicant.

(E) If any party to an arbitration dies or becomes incompetent, a court may extend the time limits set forth in division (D) of this section.

(F) In considering an application filed under divisions (A) and (B) of this section, a court may modify or correct the award for any evident miscalculation or mistake in the description of any person or property or for any imperfection of form not affecting the merits.

(G) A judgment or decree of a court of this state confirming an award, upon application, may be vacated at any time on the ground set forth in division (A)(4) or (5) of section 2712.70 of the Revised Code, provided the application is made within ninety days of the date when the circumstances giving rise to the application were first discovered or, with the exercise of due diligence, should have been discovered by the applicant.

(H) If a final award has been reduced to judgment or made the subject of official action by any court, tribunal, or other governmental authority outside the United States, the courts of this state, except as provided in division (C) of this section, shall confirm, vacate, or declare the award not entitled to confirmation by the courts of this state without regard to any term of the foreign judgment or official action and without regard to whether the award may be deemed merged into the judgment.

(I)(1) For the purposes of this section and section 2712.70 of the Revised Code, an arbitral award shall be considered a final award unless any of the following applies:

- (a) It expressly is designated an interim or interlocutory award or by its terms is not final.
 - (b) An application to vacate, clarify, correct, or amend the award is pending before the arbitral tribunal.
 - (c) Under the rules applicable to the arbitration, it is subject to further review by any arbitral authority.
- (2) For the purposes of the law of this state, an award that is final as described in division (I)(1) of this section shall be deemed final regardless of whether judicial confirmation or other official action is necessary to render that award final within the contemplation of any foreign law that may be applicable to the arbitration.

Section 2712.70 | Grounds for confirmation or vacation of award.

Effective: October 23, 1991 Latest Legislation: House Bill 221 - 119th General Assembly

- (A) A final award shall be vacated or declared not entitled to confirmation by the courts of this state only if one or more of the following grounds are established:
- (1) There was no written undertaking to arbitrate, there was fraud in the inducement of an undertaking to arbitrate, or an arbitral tribunal impaneled in accordance with the undertaking previously had determined that the dispute was nonarbitrable or that the undertaking was invalid or unenforceable, unless the party challenging the award participated on the merits in the arbitral proceedings leading to the award without first having submitted such questions to the arbitral tribunal.
 - (2) The party challenging the award was not given notice of the appointment of the arbitral tribunal or of the arbitral proceedings, unless notice proved impossible after efforts reasonably designed to give actual notice or that party waived notice or participated in those proceedings on the merits of the dispute.

(3) The arbitral tribunal conducted its proceedings so unfairly as to substantially prejudice the rights of the party challenging the award.

(4) The award was obtained by corruption, fraud, or undue influence or is contrary to the public policy of the United States or of this state.

(5) Any neutral arbitrator had a material conflict of interest with the party challenging the award, unless that party had timely notice of the conflict and proceeded without objection to arbitrate the dispute.

(6) The award resolves a dispute that the parties did not agree to refer to the arbitral tribunal, unless the party objecting arbitrated the dispute without objection, and the decision of the tribunal that the dispute was referred to it for arbitration clearly was erroneous, provided that a court may determine instead to vacate or declare not entitled to confirmation only that portion of the award dealing with the excluded dispute.

(7) The arbitral tribunal was not constituted in accordance with the agreement of the parties, unless the party challenging the award waived the irregularity or participated in the arbitral proceedings without first objecting to them.

(B) The courts of this state shall not make an independent factual determination concerning whether the grounds described in division (A)(3), (6), or (7) of this section are present if the arbitration leading to the award was conducted under the rules of, or was subject to supervision by, an arbitral authority and those grounds were submitted to the authority as a basis for challenging the validity of the award or the conduct of the arbitration. In such a case, the determination of the arbitral authority concerning those grounds shall be final. If, under the rules applicable to an arbitration, the grounds described in division (A)(3), (6), or (7) of this section could have been, but were not, submitted to an arbitral authority as a basis for challenging the validity of the award or the conduct of the arbitration, the courts of this state shall not declare an award not entitled to confirmation or vacate that award or deny its confirmation on those grounds.

(C) A court that issues an order to vacate an award or to declare that an award is not entitled to confirmation by the courts of this state also may order that all or part of the dispute between the parties be resubmitted to the same or a new arbitral tribunal as it finds appropriate.

Section 2712.71 | Relief granted in foreign currency.

In such a case, the court, in addition to entering the order in a foreign currency designated by the award, upon application by a party also shall enter that order in United States dollars determined by reference to the market rate of exchange prevailing in this state on the date the award was issued, unless the award itself fixes some other date. If no such market rate of exchange is available, the court shall fix the rate it determines to be appropriate.

Section 2712.72 | Entering judgment or decree.

Effective: October 23, 1991 Latest Legislation: House Bill 221 - 119th General Assembly

After an order confirming or vacating an award or declaring that an award is not entitled to confirmation by the courts of this state has been rendered, a judgment or decree shall be entered in conformity with that order to be enforced in the same manner as any other judgment or decree. Upon entry of a judgment or decree, the court, in its discretion, also may award costs and disbursements.

(B) Appeals shall be taken in the same manner and be subject to the same review as appeals from orders or judgments in civil actions.
